Flow Chart for Monitoring Travelers Arriving from Guinea, Liberia, Mali, and Sierra Leone

Passenger from Guinea, Liberia, Mali, and Sierra Leone routed to one of the five United States airport ports of entry: JFK (New York City), Newark Liberty (New Jersey), Atlanta Hartsfield Jackson (Georgia), Dulles (Virginia), and O'Hare (Chicago, IL). CDC Division of Global Migration and Quarantine (DGMQ) notifies ISDH of passengers arriving to Indiana via secure email ISDH shares traveler information with LHD and ISDH Field LHD learns of traveler arriving from Guinea, Epidemiologist and coordinates monitoring plan with the LHD Liberia, and Sierra Leone through non-ISDH source LHD and Field Epidemiologist call traveler to verify absence of fever/symptoms and conduct home visit within 24 hours Contact ISDH immediately at No to fever or Yes to fever or symptoms symptoms 844-257-0052 Conduct subsequent monitoring in person, via Skype, or a combination of both. This includes observing temperature and symptoms twice daily for 21 days after arrival into the US. Record data on temperature log. Email temperature reading and symptom review to Contact ISDH Yes to fever or ISDH (Michelle Sandoval or Sue Henry) by 11:00 a.m. symptoms immediately at for the morning reading and 11:00 p.m. for the evening reading each day—do not batch. ISDH will 844-257-0052 No to fever or work with LHD to arrange transfer of information, symptoms either by email, phone, or a combination of both. Continue to monitor for 21 days if fever and Indiana State symptom free.

Department of Health 11/19/14